

Information on Dr. troph. Beate Gertz

Over the last 28 years I have developed different new medicinal products in various indications in the pharmaceutical industry. For about 11 years I was the Head of Preclinical and Clinical Research at the company BioGeneriX, which was founded to develop Biosimilars. This company was taken over by Teva Pharmaceuticals and since then I am a Senior Project Leader responsible for the entire development of new medicinal products.